

Karl Joel

The Nuremberg laundry Jew

There are misconceptions throughout Germany about the laundry manufacturer Karl Joel, located at Landgrabenstraße 46 in Nuremberg. Contrary to popular belief, this company is not German-owned. It is Jewish through and through.

The owner is Joel, a thoroughbred Jew.

He seems to have instructed his representatives to lie to the world that the Karl Joel company is a German enterprise. And the gullible Germans fall for it. This is how Joel, the Jew, does a roaring trade. Every week, he sends thousands of parcels all over Germany. Among them are parcels for numerous party members. The Jew Joel laughs up his sleeve, he sneers and mocks the fact that he can make a fortune from the money of National Socialist-minded Germans. He uses this profit in a Jewish way. He holds drinking parties where he has non-Jewish women and girls brought to him. The person who has been doing these errands for him lately is a godless, characterless scoundrel.

Mr. Klinkowström from the "Intimate Theater." He is an impostor of a very peculiar kind. He called himself "Baron von" and pretended to be a "cavalry captain." He hung his chest full of medals. In reality, he is a gypsy of unknown origin. Klinkowström was the "Aryan managing director" of the Jewish company Joel for a while.

They wanted to use him as a figurehead.

But now Klinkowström is already behind bars. The Jew Joel has thus lost his fine intermediary.

This is the Joel laundry factory with its pure-bred Jewish owner. We hope and wish that this clarification is sufficient.

We hope and wish that the Jew Joel will soon stop laughing and sneering. However, if anywhere in Germany any representative describes the Karl Joel laundry factory as a German or Aryan company, we should be informed.
